

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION

RECOMMENDED ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

Speakers and Exhibitors are strongly encouraged to arrive in the event city at least one day before the Event Start Date and schedule departure for the day after the Event End Date. This recommended timeline allows ample flexibility for travel delays, ensures comfort and readiness before the event begins, and provides time to settle in and confirm any final preparation details. Remaining in the city after the event concludes also allows for smooth booth dismantling (for Exhibitors), post-event networking, and participation in any wrap-up discussions without the pressure of immediate travel. Following these guidelines helps ensure a professional, stress-free, and fully engaged event experience.

HOTEL BOOKING INSTRUCTIONS

Speakers and Exhibitors are strongly encouraged to stay at the designated venue hotel to support a smooth and stress-free conference experience. On-site accommodations eliminate transportation concerns, ensure timely arrival for scheduled sessions, and provide convenient access to the Speaker Briefing, networking activities, and other event commitments. Remaining at the venue also allows for greater flexibility in the event of schedule adjustments or technical preparations. Staying at the host hotel enhances engagement with fellow participants, strengthens collaboration opportunities, and contributes to the overall success of the conference.

To secure preferred room availability and rates, it is recommended to reserve accommodations as early as possible.
